Wrong conclusion. When we have the wrong concept and think it is true, that is a misconception. Many people are destroyed because of misconception.

When we understand the kingdom keys and how to use them, we get authority, access, ownership, control, and power in heaven. The secret to understanding the kingdom keys is knowledge. When we get the knowledge of the keys, it will make us free.

Some of the fundamental kingdom keys are love, faith, prayer, giving, and authority in the name of Jesus. Let’s strive to learn, understand and live by these keys so that we can control what happens on earth. We have been created by God to dominate on earth. God is waiting for us to use the kingdom keys and dominate the earth.

“And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.” Matthew 16:19.

As citizens of the kingdom of God, we have the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Keys can be used to lock and unlock, stop and start, open and close, bind and loose. Keys cannot be substituted by emotions, feelings, wishful thinking or manipulation. These are all religious acts. Being wrong conclusion. MARRIAGE MINISTRY

The Marriage Ministry was held on May 24, 2009. This month’s theme topic was “Changing Faces” – Stop Trying to Change Your Spouse. If you missed the month of May Marriage Ministry, you missed a night of wisdom and fun.

The evening began with the couples being greeted by Dwight and Rixie Thompson. The greeting was followed by skits acted out by couples Jeff and Gloria Miller and Steve and Nicole Brown. The lesson learned from the skits was that no matter how much you would like to change your spouse, you do not have the power to change another person. After the skits, Pastor Baldwin recommended the following: 1. Instead of wasting your time and energy trying to change your spouse, ask God to help you understand, accept, and appreciate your spouse. 2. Get to know spouse’s unique personality. 3. When you are frustrated by one of your spouse’s behaviors, pray about it and trust God. 4. If you want to change your marriage, focus on making changes in your own behavior, which will then change the dynamics of your relationship for the better and possibly inspire your spouse to change his or her own behavior.

The evening ended with a game, food and fellowship. The great food and the exciting game activity definitely created a couple friendly atmosphere.

For dinner, we ate tacos and ice cream. Many people seemed to like the ice cream. At 2:00 a.m., we watched the movie, “Bedtime Stories”. Most people fell asleep during the movie. The Lock-in ended at 7:00 a.m.
